- You move premises.
- You do not wish to accept variations to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Go Power in section 4.

If you switch to another supplier this Agreement will end only whenever any new supply of electricity commences. Payment must be made for any outstanding balance and also for all electricity supplied by us and used by you up to and including the date the new supply of electricity commences.

Relevant details may be passed to the new supplier to help with the transfer process. Additionally, if there is debt owed to us by you, an agreement can be made between us and any new supplier to transfer the debt owed to us to your new supplier to enable them to collect the debt owed by giving them full details of the debt.

In the event that you vacate the Property at any time after the supply of electricity to the Property has started, the Agreement remains in force, and you remain liable for all electricity supplied and used at the Property unless you have provided at least 7 working days' notice in writing of the date of vacation of the Property. Go Power may change the tariffs and the way the tariffs are charged at any time in consultation with the Authority and the Consumer Council. This information will be available to all customers 21 days before it comes into effect.

Non-keypad customers will receive an invoice from Go Power for the electricity usage. Go Power may estimate the customer’s usage using the consumption history and standard industry practice. The customer will be asked for payment based on an estimated meter read. Estimated reads will be used if the customer failed to provide a read before the bill was issued or a meter reader fails to get access to your meter during a visit to the Property. To avoid estimated bills you can call the Go Power help line on 028 9079 0000. Go Power will seek to gain access to your Property to take a meter read at least once every 12 months.

You must allow us or any other person on our behalf, safe access to the Metering Equipment including keypad meters at all reasonable times to enable the meter to be read. If the meter isn’t registering the electricity usage accurately you must agree to pay an amount that reasonably reflects the actual amount of electricity used. If you disagree with the estimation of electricity usage you may wish to contact us at the helpline as detailed above or alternatively refer the matter to the Consumer Council.

A Bright Alternative

The account will be jointly and severally liable by each and other of you and we will be entitled to claim payment of any part thereof from each or both of you.

If there is an amount payable by you under dispute, you must pay the amount that is not under dispute. When the matter has been settled we may adjust any amount owed by you as a result. You will be required to permit us or others acting on our instruction to gain safe access to the Property on reasonable notice to install the keypad meter and that you will be required to pay for the keypad meter if;

- Credit checks indicate to Go Power that keypad is the appropriate payment method; or
- Go power have reason to believe that the meter has been tampered with; or
- Money is owed to Go Power and by installing a keypad meter can avoid disconnection of the electricity supply.

You are aware that to receive electricity on a keypad meter you must top up. If you fail to do so, this could cause inconvenience, loss, damage and injury to yourself, other occupiers and visitors to the Property for which you agree that we will not be responsible.

The code of practice which sets out the services Go Power offer to keypad meter customers is available on request or visit Go power's website at www.gopower.co.uk

(Provided it is safe and reasonably practicable in all the circumstances to supply through such a meter and we are reasonably able to provide one) if the customer doesn't pay the deposit or via monthly direct debit Go power will insist on installing a keypad meter (Go power will obtain a warrant if necessary)

Go Power shall not be obliged to repay any security deposit where it is reasonable in all the circumstances for Go Power to retain the deposit.

A Bright Alternative

In addition to the paragraph above, if the customer paid all the charges for supply of electricity for the previous 12 months with 28 days of the date each written invoice Go Power will repay any security deposit, such repayment to be made within 28 days of the date on which the customer will become eligible for the security deposit to be repaid. If the customer has paid all charges for the supply of electricity and the supply of electricity and the supply by Go power has ended in accordance with this Agreement. Go power will repay the security deposit as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event, within 1 month.

If the customer owes money at the end of the Agreement, Go Power may retain the deposit and use this to reduce any debt owed. The amount Go Power will retain will not be any more than the amount owed. Any money received from the customer as a deposit and not used to reduce any debt owed to Go Power will be returned;

22. CONNECTION TO THE ELECTRICITY NETWORK

For you to receive a supply of electricity from Go Power under this Agreement the customer requires a connection with the Network Operator (NIE Networks Ltd). The Network Operator operates the local electricity network that delivers electricity to the premises and has appointed Go Power to act as its agent to enter into a connection Agreement with the customer on standard terms. The customer agrees that, by entering into this Agreement with Go Power, the customer is also entering into a Connection Agreement with the Network Operator for connection of the premises to its network.

The terms of the Connection Agreement are the Standard Connection Terms and Conditions.

The customer is entitled to negotiate terms of connection of the premises to the network that are not the same terms as the Standards Terms and Conditions. If the customer wishes to do so they must negotiate with the Network Operator and not with Go Power about those terms but the supply cannot commence until the customer has provided Go Power with evidence that there is a Connection Agreement in force for the premises with the Network operator and customer must inform Go Power if that Connection Agreement terminates.

More information can be provided to the customer about the Standard Terms and Conditions by calling the Network Operator at 08457 643 643 or by visiting the website www.nie.co.uk. The Network Operator is responsible for the quality and continuity of supply. It must comply with certain service standards in relation to the delivery of the range of services they provide.
