Exemptions

The Gas (Individual Standards of Performance) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2014 detail a number of circumstances where the guaranteed standards may not apply. These include:

- Where you inform us that you do not want us to take any action or further action
- Where you agree that any action we have taken (or promise to take) meets the requirement of the guaranteed standard.
- Where we require information from you in order to meet our guaranteed standard, you either telephone a number or send the information to an address other than the one which we provided, you contact us outside our working hours
- Where we could not have reasonably been expected to meet our guaranteed standards, you either telephone a number or send the information to an address other than the one which we provided, you contact us outside our working hours.
- Where we could not have reasonably been expected to meet our guaranteed standards due to

- Severe weather conditions
 - Industrial action by our employees or contractors
 - The actions of a third party
 - Inability of PNGL to gain ability to relevant premises
 - The possibility we may break the law by complying with the guaranteed standard
 - The effects of an event for which emergency regulations have been made under Part 2 of the Civil Contingencies Act 2004 (8)
 - Delays imposed by a requirement to obtain a permit for street works under the Road (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland) 2010 (9)
 - Other exceptional circumstances beyond our control
- Where information provided by the customer is considered frivolous or vexatious
 - Where you:
 - Are responsible for damage to the natural gas equipment
 - Have failed to pay outstanding charges

 - Where you have been disconnected or refused connection to the network

If we invoke any of the exemptions permitted within the Regulations, we are required to demonstrate that we have taken all reasonable steps to prevent failure.
